You have just received this e-mail from your friend John:

Hello mate,

How are things? I've just spoken to Mary. She told me you've just come back from your holiday abroad and you aren't too happy about it. Things didn't go as expected, did they? Anyway, drop me a line when you can. I'm dying to find out what happened.

Take care,

John

Write an e-mail back to John (john.willows25@yahoo.com) in which you tell him:

- A problem you had at the airport.
- The reason why your hotel was not what you expected.
- Problems you had during your stay.

Use the space below to note down and organise your ideas.
These notes will not be marked.

TASK 2 (13 marks)*Write about 150-180 words following the instructions.*MARK*The suggested time for this task is: 45 minutes.

You have just read this piece of news:

Late last night the local council finally decided in favour of making Brighton Park (right across where you live) more attractive to the city's residents. After a month of discussions, the council agreed to spend more than £50,000 on improving it. The council plans to complete work on the park by next June.

Write a letter to the city council, giving your opinion. Include the following points:

- Your opinion about the news.
- Describe how you would like the park to be.
- Another service your neighbourhood needs.

Use the space below to note down and organise your ideas.
These notes will not be marked.
