

TASK I: MONOLOGUE

TOPIC 1

- In this part of the exam you are going to give a short talk on a topic.
- You can use some of the ideas given below, or any other information relevant to the topic.
- The talk should last 3 or 4 minutes. When the teacher signals you to stop you should bring your talk to a conclusion.
- When it is the other candidate's turn to speak, you should not interrupt. When he or she finishes one of the examiners will ask you one question about what they have said.

EDUCATION

Students in secondary schools around Europe seem to get worse results every year.

Say what you think about this problem. Is it really as bad as people think?

Explain briefly what you know about the situation in Spanish schools.

What can be done to improve the education system?

Whose responsibility is it to provide children and teenagers with a good education?

TASK I: MONOLOGUE

TOPIC 2

- In this part of the exam you are going to give a short talk on a topic.
- You can use some of the ideas given below, or any other information relevant to the topic.
- The talk should last 3 or 4 minutes. When the teacher signals you to stop you should bring your talk to a conclusion.
- When it is the other candidate's turn to speak, you should not interrupt. When he or she finishes one of the examiners will ask you one question about what they have said.

DRIVING

Are Spanish roads particularly dangerous?

Generally speaking, are Spanish drivers good or bad?

Explain some of the changes introduced recently to reduce the number of accidents and say if you think they have been (or will be) effective or not.

Do you think the penalties imposed on drunk drivers are fair?

Spanish people use public transport less than other European citizens. Why do you think this is so?

TASK I: MONOLOGUE

TOPIC 3

- In this part of the exam you are going to give a short talk on a topic.
- You can use some of the ideas given below, or any other information relevant to the topic.
- The talk should last 3 or 4 minutes. When the teacher signals you to stop you should bring your talk to a conclusion.
- When it is the other candidate's turn to speak, you should not interrupt. When he or she finishes one of the examiners will ask you one question about what they have said.

EATING HABITS

The eating habits of Spanish people have changed over the last few years. Explain how.

Most experts agree that the Mediterranean diet is particularly beneficial. What are its main characteristics?

Fast food restaurants are now offering "healthier" menus. Are they admitting their normal menus are not so healthy?

Doctors are especially worried about what children and teenagers eat. What can be done to solve this problem?

TASK I: MONOLOGUE

TOPIC 4

- In this part of the exam you are going to give a short talk on a topic.
- You can use some of the ideas given below, or any other information relevant to the topic.
- The talk should last 3 or 4 minutes. When the teacher signals you to stop you should bring your talk to a conclusion.
- When it is the other candidate's turn to speak, you should not interrupt. When he or she finishes one of the examiners will ask you one question about what they have said.

CHRISTMAS

What do you and your friends / family usually do during the Christmas holiday?

What local traditions or customs do you think a foreigner would find unusual?

Has this holiday changed a lot in Spain over the last few years?

What traditions from other countries do you find interesting?

TASK I: MONOLOGUE

TOPIC 5

- In this part of the exam you are going to give a short talk on a topic.
- You can use some of the ideas given below, or any other information relevant to the topic.
- The talk should last 3 or 4 minutes. When the teacher signals you to stop you should bring your talk to a conclusion.
- When it is the other candidate's turn to speak, you should not interrupt. When he or she finishes one of the examiners will ask you one question about what they have said.

HOLIDAYS

What interesting places would you recommend to someone who is going to spend a few days visiting the area where you live?

Package holidays do not usually allow tourists to appreciate the places they visit. Do you agree?

Are there any alternatives to traditional holidays in your area?

What are the positive and negative aspects of tourism in the area where you live?

What kind of holidays do you prefer?

TASK I: MONOLOGUE

TOPIC 6

- In this part of the exam you are going to give a short talk on a topic.
- You can use some of the ideas given below, or any other information relevant to the topic.
- The talk should last 3 or 4 minutes. When the teacher signals you to stop you should bring your talk to a conclusion.
- When it is the other candidate's turn to speak, you should not interrupt. When he or she finishes one of the examiners will ask you one question about what they have said.

THE INTERNET

Has the Internet changed our lives? How?

What problems has the Internet created? What problems has it solved?

Should authorities be allowed to control people's activity on the web?

Do you think it will be possible to put an end to Internet piracy?

The development of the Internet has been very fast. What do you think the next step will be?

TASK I: MONOLOGUE

TOPIC 7

- In this part of the exam you are going to give a short talk on a topic.
- You can use some of the ideas given below, or any other information relevant to the topic.
- The talk should last 3 or 4 minutes. When the teacher signals you to stop you should bring your talk to a conclusion.
- When it is the other candidate's turn to speak, you should not interrupt. When he or she finishes one of the examiners will ask you one question about what they have said.

ENVIRONMENTAL ISSUES

Mention some important environmental problems in the area where you live. What are people doing about it?

Has people's attitude towards the environment improved?

Celebrities often cooperate with campaigns for the protection of the environment. Give some examples. Do you think this contributes to the success of these campaigns?

Reports indicate that the hole in the ozone layer has been reduced significantly thanks, possibly, to years of campaigning against CFCs. Which other problems do you think people will be able to solve in the near future?

TASK I: MONOLOGUE

TOPIC 8

- In this part of the exam you are going to give a short talk on a topic.
- You can use some of the ideas given below, or any other information relevant to the topic.
- The talk should last 3 or 4 minutes. When the teacher signals you to stop you should bring your talk to a conclusion.
- When it is the other candidate's turn to speak, you should not interrupt. When he or she finishes one of the examiners will ask you one question about what they have said.

SHOPPING

What can traditional or "high street" shops do to survive the competition of big shopping malls?

Where do you do most of your shopping?

What products would you never buy on the Internet?

Name some advantages of:

- traditional markets
- shopping centres
- Internet/catalogue shopping

TASK I: MONOLOGUE

TOPIC 9

- In this part of the exam you are going to give a short talk on a topic.
- You can use some of the ideas given below, or any other information relevant to the topic.
- The talk should last 3 or 4 minutes. When the teacher signals you to stop you should bring your talk to a conclusion.
- When it is the other candidate's turn to speak, you should not interrupt. When he or she finishes one of the examiners will ask you one question about what they have said.

PHYSICAL EXERCISE

Doctors agree that physical exercise is part of a balanced and healthy lifestyle. Do you do enough physical exercise?

What sports facilities are there near your home?

Do you do more or less physical exercise now than five years ago?

Some schools think it is necessary to dedicate more time to physical education. What do you think about this?

Do children have a different attitude towards physical activity nowadays?

TASK I: MONOLOGUE

TOPIC 10

- In this part of the exam you are going to give a short talk on a topic.
- You can use some of the ideas given below, or any other information relevant to the topic.
- The talk should last 3 or 4 minutes. When the teacher signals you to stop you should bring your talk to a conclusion.
- When it is the other candidate's turn to speak, you should not interrupt. When he or she finishes one of the examiners will ask you one question about what they have said.

THE MEDIA

How important is it for you to keep up with the news?

What is the role of newspapers in society?

How are traditional media adapting to new technologies?

Do you think competition between private and public TV stations is helping to improve the quality of the programmes?

What makes a television programme popular?

TASK I: MONOLOGUE

TOPIC 11

- In this part of the exam you are going to give a short talk on a topic.
- You can use some of the ideas given below, or any other information relevant to the topic.
- The talk should last 3 or 4 minutes. When the teacher signals you to stop you should bring your talk to a conclusion.
- When it is the other candidate's turn to speak, you should not interrupt. When he or she finishes one of the examiners will ask you one question about what they have said.

THE WAY WE LOOK

The reason why many young people suffer from eating disorders is the obsession of our society with physical appearance. Do you agree?

Advertisements are often blamed for this obsession. Do you think advertising firms are trying to change this?

What influence do famous people have on the way young people dress?

Some parents have given their teenage children cosmetic surgery as a birthday present. What do you think about this?

TASK I: MONOLOGUE

TOPIC 12

- In this part of the exam you are going to give a short talk on a topic.
- You can use some of the ideas given below, or any other information relevant to the topic.
- The talk should last 3 or 4 minutes. When the teacher signals you to stop you should bring your talk to a conclusion.
- When it is the other candidate's turn to speak, you should not interrupt. When he or she finishes one of the examiners will ask you one question about what they have said.

THE ELDERLY IN OUR SOCIETY

People live longer nowadays and some think that retirement age should be 70 or even 75 in some jobs. Do you agree?

Elderly people nowadays have a more interesting life than in the past. Do you agree with this statement?

Some people prefer living on their own to living with their families or in old people's homes. What do you think? What would you like for yourself?

Some scientists predict that soon it will be normal to live up to 120 or even longer. Is this as positive as it sounds? Can you think of any drawbacks?