

Mediation Exam 1 – Listening Script

PART 1 1.4

This is the CineCity information line. You can find information about the films in our classic film festival this week here, or on our website: www.cinecity.com. You can book tickets on our website, or at the cinema in person. Tickets cost £12 for adults and £8 for children under sixteen.

From Saturday 11th May to Friday 17th May, our screenings are as follows:

On Screen 1, our largest screen, we're showing Star Wars: A New Hope at 15.10, 18.20 and 20.30. This is a science-fiction film, with a Universal rating so it's suitable for children.

On Screen 2, our lounge screen, we've got Pretty Woman, a romantic comedy, showing at 12 noon and 17.30. Please note this screen has limited seating and the seats are low, so they may not be suitable for elderly people or anyone with mobility issues. This film has a 15 rating so is not suitable for children under the age of 15.

On Screen 3, our smallest screen, we're showing Superman 3 at 18.00. This film has a Universal rating. You may want to buy tickets in advance for this showing, as seating is very limited.

Drinks and snacks can be purchased in the foyer, and you can take them into the cinema with you. If you're going to a film with a 15 or 18 rating, you may wish to bring ID with you.

If you have any other questions, please visit our website, or ring 0203 571 900 between 8.00 a.m. and 8.00 p.m. and we will do our best to help you.

We look forward to seeing you soon, and hope you enjoy your film.
