

PRESENT AND FUTURE FORMS REVIEW

Present simple	a. Present states
	b. regular or timeless events
	c. scheduled future events
	d. with a future meaning after linking devices, e.g. when, while, after, as soon as...
Present Continuous	a. activities in progress now
	b. future arrangements
Future simple (will)	a. making spontaneous decisions / offers / promises
	b. predictions based on your own opinion Going to	a. talking about plans made earlier
	b. making predictions based on facts and evidence Present perfect simple	a. measuring the time of states up to now with how long / for / since
Present perfect continuous	a. measuring the time of actions up to now
Future continuous	a. events in progress at a particular future time (e.g. this time next week..)
Future Perfect simple	a. events that will be completed by a particular future time
Future Perfect continuous	a. results of incomplete processes at a particular future time	